Subject: Promotion Rejection Letter

Dear Mr. Shyam Modi,

With reference to your promotion request submitted on 01-02-2020 for the post of Senior Accountant in Accounts Department at our Pune Office, we are happy that you came forward and requested for your promotion.

Your excellent performance and dedication towards your work are highly appreciable. You have worked hard and provided best results to complete the given tasks.

We regret to inform you that unfortunately at this moment we have to reject your promotion request.

Reason for Rejecting Promotion:

Though you bear good educational degrees as well as you are with us with last few years but your current experience is not enough for this position yet.

You are a deserving person and you ought to have a promotion to get motivated and perform even better.

We management has taken notice of your capabilities and will consider your request in near future. As of now please accept the rejection letter for your promotion.

Thanking you.
